THURSDAY, 17 APRIL – Residential College Cemerlang Dinamik (Kolej CD) Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) actively implements various student activities.

From today until Sunday, Kolej CD will hold and its inaugural Open Day aimed at strengthening ties among undergrads who are from different background.

In addition, it is also to give exposure to the undergrads about the management of a programme at residential college or university.

Among its contents are entrepreneurship expo, blood donation drive, UMS Got Talent, official opening of a mini garden, safety demonstration and parade by uniformed bodies, games and a seminar by the Department of Youth and Sports.

The opening ceremony is expected to be officiated by the Minister of Local Government and Housing Sabah, Datuk Seri Panglima Haji Hajiji Mohd. Noor at Kolej CD Multipurpose Hall on Sunday.

Kolej CD will also be organising Undergrads Day which will feature interesting activities.

The programme inspired by its Head, Dr. Mohamad Nizam Nazarudin aimed to provide opportunities for female undergrads to showcase their talents and skills through various activities such as hantaran arrangement and cooking competition.

It is also to expose them to a variety of techniques and practices of health care and healthy lifestyle through the active and lively segment, health talks, beauty segment and cooking demonstration.

The Undergrads Day will be officially opened by the Minister of Community Development and Consumer Affairs, Datuk Hjh. Jainab Datuk Seri Panglima Hj. Ahmad Ayid on Saturday. – SS (fl)
