MONDAY, 19th JANUARY – Voice of Culture and Youth Volunteers participants will continue their voluntary programme to Ranau district area beginning today.

According to the Programme Coordinator, MOhd Quazly Ariffin Anzy, this is the continuity of the voluntary programme at Kampung Sungai Labu which ended yesterday.

He said that 26 undergraduates from Universiti Malaysia Sabah Kampus Antarabangsa Labuan (UMSKAL) and 25 undergraduates from Universiti Sultan Zainal Abidin

(UniSZA), Terengganu, will be joining a few community activities at the surrounding district.

“Among the activities will be a communal work at Rumah Anak Yatim Putera Harapan Ranau and also visiting Sungai Tagal, Dairy Farm and Kinabalu Park,” he said.

He also added that the programme which will be end on Thursday was aimed to closing the gap between volunteers and undergraduates from both IPTA with the local communities and also instilling nature-loving morale to all participants. –SS
