WEDNESDAY, 14 AUGUST – Do you have ideas that you want to share with the Vice-Chancellor? Then wait no more! Send them now to This email address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it.">ideas@ums.edu.my.

Send us your ideas, big or small, that you think will help in transforming this University into a better place for its community. Any ideas that covers any aspect are welcome such as the welfare of students and staff, the safety within the campus, one that will improve or upgrade the present system or one that will save our budget, in short any ideas at all!

Interesting and mysterious prizes await all ideas that will be put to use. You might also be the lucky one to dine with the Vice-Chancellor.

What better way to turn your ideas into reality. So get started and be rewarded.
