

A possible new record of Cordyceps species from Ginseng Camp, Maliau Basin, Sabah, Malaysia

Abstract

A Cordyceps species was found in Maliau Basin at an altitude of 620m, parasitizing an unidentified cicada nymph. Investigation of literature did not reveal any similar species, so it is postulated this may be a new undescribed species.