WEDNESDAY, 8 MARCH – The Faculty of Humanities, Arts and Heritage (FKSW) of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) recently organised a Community Service Engagement under their Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Programme at Kg. Lok Urai, Pulau Gaya.

With the aim to instil positive attitude and team work among those involved, the programme which was in collaboration with the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences (FPSK), and Residential College Sri Angkasa UMS was led by the Dean of FKSW, Professor Dr. Ismail Ibrahim.

“This is a routine programme organised by the staff of FKSW in bridging the gap between UMS and the community,” he said.

About 55 volunteers comprising staff of FKSW and FPSK as well as students of Residential College Sri Angkasa were involved in the programme.

Among the activities held were a healthcare briefing, medical check-up, gotong-royong, repairing of the alternative education activity centre, and handing over of stationery supplies to the children of Kg. Lok Urai.

Also present at the event was FKSW Deputy Dean of Academic and International, Dr. Marsitah Mohd Radzi, Deputy Dean of Student Affairs and Alumni, Dr. Mohamad Puad Bebit and Head of Residential College Sri Angkasa, Dr. Afrizal Anwar @ Teuku Afrizal.
