

Modern conversation = perbualan moden

ABSTRACT

In this compilation, there are 9, 15 minute plays in both English and Malay languages that is targeted to allow students who are interested in theater and the performing arts to practice the technique of acting. Students will be able to explore the ideas generated through the open-endedness of the plays especially in the area of minimal props in the staging of each play. the plays are suitable for students and future thespians to practice in small groups as part of creative curricular that appeals to their sense of the unexpected in modern relationship that we have with one another.